

Prefixes

A prefix belongs at the start of a base word. It changes the meaning of the word. Look at the examples below.

dis

honest

re

do

under

cook

un

lock

mis

lead

bi

focal

im

possible

anti

social

non

sense

Suffixes

A suffix belongs at the end of a base word. It changes the meaning of the word. Look at the examples below.

farm

er

walk

ing

employ ment

friend

ship

kind

ness

false

hood

shame

less

thirst

y

thank

ful